

CAREER-LIFE CONNECTIONS 11

Career Life Connections 11 (CLC 11) is a two-credit course required by the BC Ministry of Education for Graduation. Students will gain meaningful and relevant insight into their personal transition to post-secondary education, the world of work, and adulthood. This course will also prepare students for Career Life Connections 12 and the Capstone Project. CLC 11 is a mandatory but non-enrolling course which means students are responsible for completing the online assignments on their own time. The course will be delivered over Microsoft Teams.

GOALS:

- I can analyze internal and external factors to inform personal career-life choices for post-graduation planning
- I can engage with personal, education, and employment networks to cultivate post-graduation resources and social capital
- I can explore possibilities for preferred personal and education/employment futures, using creative and innovative thinking
- I can identify and apply preferred approaches to learning for ongoing career-life development and self-advocacy
- I can engage in, reflect on, and evaluate career-life exploration

EVALUATION:

There will be 3 assignments throughout the school year. They will be marked on a 4-point scale and you will receive a tailored assessment rubric for each assignment. You will receive a final mark for the course at the end of the semester.

HELP AND SUPPORT:

You will be assigned to one of the two Career and Life advisors/teachers on Microsoft Teams. Please contact your advisor through Teams or via email if you have any questions.
